

D103 PTO, Lincolnshire Community Nursery School, and Tamarak Country School are pleased to announce the return of Michael Brandwein,
a nationally award-winning educator, speaker, and best-selling author, star of the Emmy award-winning PBS television series “Parenting Puzzle”, and former D103 parent.

“WHY DON’T YOU BEHAVE?!”

The KEY SYSTEM Solution to Handling Negative Behavior While Teaching Positive Choices

For parents of children in pre-K through 8th grade

Michael Brandwein
7pm-9pm Wednesday, February 12, 2014
Daniel Wright Middle School Cafeteria
1370 N. Riverwoods Rd. Lincolnshire

This nationally acclaimed, practical, entertaining presentation demonstrates specific techniques you can use right away to teach children to replace undesired and challenging behavior with better choices:

- Immediately boost your confidence, calmness, and consistency with simple, clear steps.
- Establish trust and reduce stress.
- “Mean” what you say while modeling warmth and respect with this positive approach to teaching great behavior.

Cost: FREE but space is limited: RSVP by February 10 and be eligible to win Michael Brandwein’s “Parenting Puzzle” DVD (must be present to win): <http://tinyurl.com/BrandweinFeb12>

The Parenting Puzzle DVD will be available for sale at the program and a portion of the proceeds will benefit D103 PTO, LCNS, and Tamarak.

“This was a great event with a wonderful speaker. I learned so much in such a short time!”

“I enjoyed this SOOO much. I had several takeaways...Michael was very engaging. I was completely enthralled by his presentation which in turn had me learning so much more.”

“I learned a number of strategies which I will apply to be a more positive parent. Thanks very much!!”
